Healthy People Sometimes Laugh

At the sufferings of dyspepties, and say that their pains and distresses are imaginary. This is not meant for cruelty, but it is cruelty, all the same. A person who has a crooked foot, or a wounded hand, or a sightless eye, calls forth sympathy by the exhibition of the defective member. It the dyspeptic sufferer's stomach could be placed on exhibition, the cause of his distress would be apparent. The man with a troublesome stomach defens suffered squite as much at the same that the sa
